The only cast members who will not wear a grass skirt are the Chief Ancestors, Gramma Tala, Maui, and Moana.

MUSIC

Logan has asked that everyone reviews the foreign language parts we learned today and that you be prepared to learn "Song of the Ancestors" next weekend (which features a small foreign language part). As a reminder, the pronunciation tracks (like the one we worked with today) can be found on the Google Drive.

We have changed the key for "How Far I'll Go". The accompaniment track on the Google Drive has been updated, but if you pulled the files onto another device prior to Thursday, you may need to download an up-to-date copy.

@FF-BOOK DATES

Please be prepared to be off-book for Act I by Saturday, October 31st. This includes both lines and music. Act II should be off-book by Monday, November 9th.
