

Good evening,

Yesterday's first full run of the show was a great success. Students need to make sure they learn all the words to "Let the Sun Shine On," but things are overall in a very good place.

This week's schedule is as follows:

Monday, 11/25: Full run. Full cast 6:00-8:30

Tuesday, 11/26: Full run. Full cast 6:00-8:30

After our Thanksgiving break, we will be going right into tech/dress. We will be rehearsing Monday through Thursday of next week, which is admittedly more strenuous than I'd like, but it's the tradeoff for having Thanksgiving weekend off. I will be aiming to get to the theater by 5:30 each night to open the doors, and the runs will each start at 6:30, so students should arrive at whatever time they feel they should in order to be in-costume and ready to start right at 6:30.

Mic checks will occur at 6:10. The following roles start the show with a mic:

Young Anna
Young Elsa
King Agnarr
Queen Iduna
Pabbie
Bulda
Townsperson 1
Townsperson 2

These individuals should be in-costume prior to mic check.

As stated at orientation, Dress Rehearsals will go until the run is done. The show will probably run around 80 minutes, so the rehearsals should not be going past eight by the end of the week, but we will surely have technical issues to address at the start of the week, so Monday will likely go until around nine.

For those who are not going out-of-town next weekend, we are looking to paint the set during that time. If you are available and willing to help with this, please email productionteam@thehcpac.org with your availability Friday-Sunday, and we'll figure out what times work for the most people.

Keep up the great work,

Schreiber
